Our Methodology

Job-Oriented Teaching

Linguapol believes in learning with the motive of being able to use the knowledge in a professional setting. Our teaching-learning process guides a student right from the first level to get a job. Our courses incorporate the kind of knowledge that will be useful for the student to get a job and work in international environments.

Learning Made Fun

Linguapol believes in making the process of teaching and learning a fun game. This keeps the student engaged to the course right from the beginning to the end and through every single class. This involves audio-visual methods of teaching, fun interactions, mock interviews, group discussion, extensive revision, quizzes, unlimited exercise, and study materials.

Target-based Learning

Linguapol understands the need of the student and then sets a target that the teacher and the student achieve within the set period. We cater to all kinds of different requirements of the student with customized courses and flexible timings.

Integrated Common Platform

Linguapol has all its resources in one single platform. Linguapol uses its own app in which the student can purchase courses, attend live classes, access online resources, appear for exams and even receive certificates. The student does not have to wander around in different software or website for all the activities in the curriculum of the course.
